Azerbaijan's Constitutional Court Confirms President Aliyev's Election Win

The Constitutional Court of the Republic of Azerbaijan has confirmed incumbent President Ilham Aliyev's victory in the presidential election held on October 15.

The Constitutional Court approved on Oct. 22, 2008, the final election figures provided by the Central Election Commission. President Aliyev won 88.73 percent of the vote, securing a second term of five years.

The court's decision comes into effect immediately.

Under Azerbaijan's constitution, the president must be inaugurated within three days of the Constitutional Court confirming the election results. President Aliyev will be inaugurated on Friday, Oct. 24, 2008.
